

HERE'S THE PLAN!

1. Consider your relationship with Christ and what He's done for you!
2. Consider what God wants to Xpress through you in some creative way! Don't be afraid to try something new! Let God's Word inspire you!
3. Go to work! Create your Xpression! Use the Christmas holidays to begin preparing!
4. Package it with excellence!
  - If your xpression is a poem, photograph, painting, etc., put it in a nice frame for presentation.
  - If your xpression is a song, dance, drama, etc., prepare to present it on center stage on January 22nd.
  - If you choose to Xpress God through service or ministry to others, create a poster, video, slideshow, or other way to present the experience.
5. All display Xpressions must be turned in by Wednesday evening, January 20th. For those preparing a live Xpression, you will need to set up a time to meet with the coordinators and share your xpression during the week of Xpress. E-mail Claire Elliott to schedule a time at CElliott@tallowood.org.
6. Invite your friends and family to come to Xpress! It's going to be a fun night of laughter and enjoying beautiful Xpressions that make God look good! Plus, we'll have all kinds of goodies available to eat and drink for just a few bucks!
7. As part of this year's SPOTLIGHT AFRICA, Abby Tracy will be sharing just a few minutes during the night to update us on how God is using her to Xpress His love to street boys in Uganda.
  - We are asking you to bring at least a $5 donation to Xpress 2010 that will be given to support her amazing ministry! Ask God what He would want you to give that night.
  - Also, bring a few bucks to buy yourself some snacks from Chick-fil-A and Marble Slab!
